We don't work for Oracle, we are just trying to broaden the knowledge base around 12.2

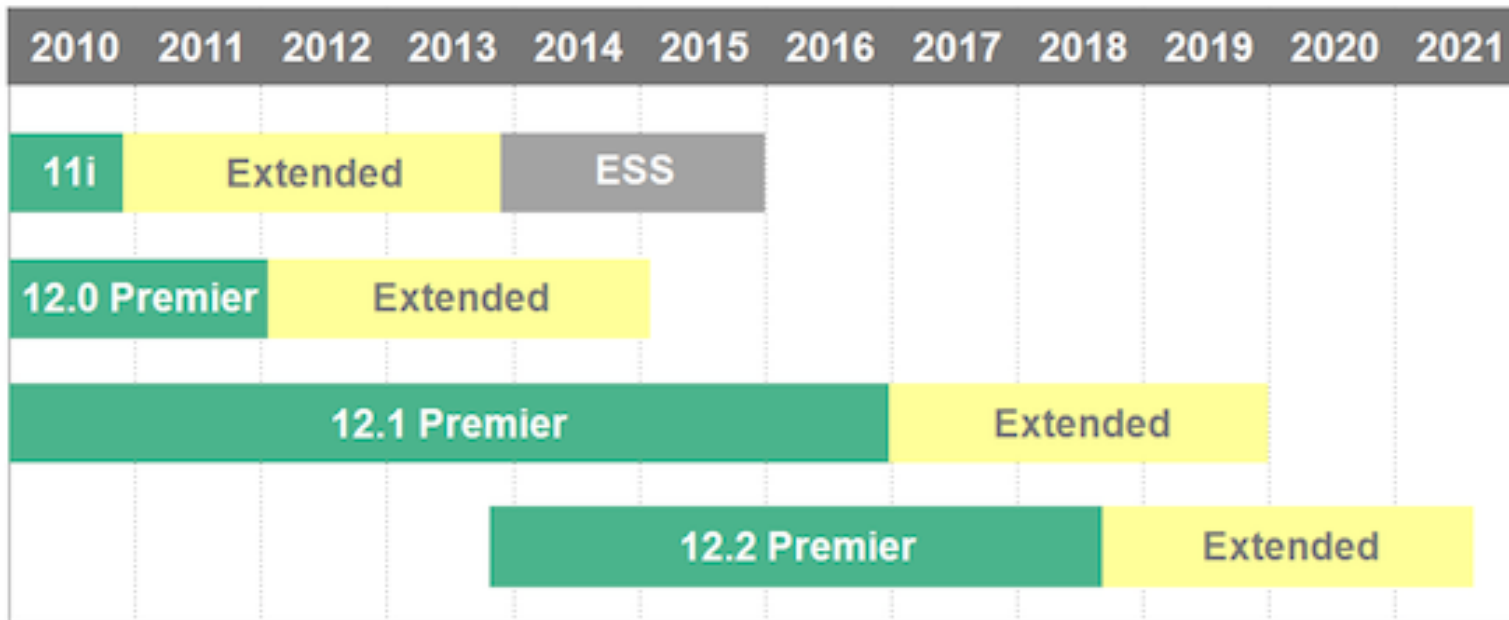

12.2 has been a long time coming

- Extensive Beta Program
- General Release September 2013
- No customers live on 12.2 yet
- Some customers have upgrade projects underway
- We have no details on Oracle's internal 12.2 upgrade plans

Support Timelines

- Show of hands for current PROD version
- Show of hands for upgrade projects in progress
- The following is from Steven Chan's blog

E-Business Suite Support Timelines

Why 12.2

- We are in a unique spot right now where you can go from 11i directly to 12.2, in one upgrade
- WebLogic Server would be beneficial for your environment
- OnLine Patching would be beneficial for your environment
- Sandra is going to cover more....

Why 12.1.3

- Stable release of Oracle EBS
- Many customizations/extensions that would require extensive porting
- Upgrade project is already underway
- 3rd Party Applications are not yet supported
- Sandra is going to cover more....

Agenda

- Upgrading to 12.2 – Sandra
- Administering 12.2 – Ivo
- Development in 12.2 – John
